

ITAL. FOL. 157

Binding:

Binding of brown marbled leather, 18th century (287 × 205 mm). In bad state of preservation. 5 raised bands. On the spine, barely visible traces of plant motif decorations.

History:

The manuscript can be dated to the turn of the 17th and 18th centuries based on the writing and the dates in the texts (the last date in the text is 1695 - cf. 22v^o). The manuscript belonged to a German historian, Wilhelm Johann Albert von Tettau (1804-1890) – cf. note at the back, on the pastedown: W. v Tettau. The Königliche Bibliothek purchased the manuscript in 1885, through the Glogau antiquary bookshop from Leipzig.

Lemm, p. 76.
